OBITUARY RECORD.

Mrs. J. Silas Leas.
Mrs. J. Silas Leas, for over half a century a resident of this city, died this morning shortly after 1 o'clock at her home, 749 Thirtieth street, death being due to a complication of diseases, with which she had suffered for the last seven years. She had been confined to her room since last April. Mrs. Leas was born in Newton, Mass., Sept. 8, 1828, and was 79 years of age. She spent the early days of her life in Newton, and in 1856 was married to A. H. Lambert. They removed to this city soon afterward. Mr. Lambert died several years ago and Mrs. Lambert and Mr. Leas were married some time later. She is survived by her husband and three children from her first marriage, Mrs. Anna Maguire, George E.

Lambert, and Abraham H. Lambert, all of this city. The funeral services will be held at the home at 2:30 Thursday afternoon. Burial will take place at Chippinok cemetery.

Wise Counsel from the South.
"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Bee, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at W. T. Harris' drug store, 301 Twentieth street. Price, 25c.
